BURNED IN AN HOUR

Fire Was Not Long In Destroying the Christian Church.

STREET HYDRANTS WERE FROZEN

The Department Experienced Some Difficulty In Getting Water—Other Buildings Saved—A Large Crowd Had a Few Minutes Before Left the Building.

Fire was discovered in the Christian church last night at 10:25, and within an hour the pretty little building was a pile of smoking ruins.

The church had been filled during the evening by a large audience who listened attentively to Prof. O. S. Reed as he lectured upon "The United States in Prophecy." Several persons recall that they smelled burning wood, and one found the wall hot when his hand was laid on it.

At the time given the family of Mrs. Sinclair, who live on Robinson street next to the church, discovered smoke and flame issuing from a window. An alarm was turned in, and the department soon reached the scene. The system was not working well, and only a few taps of the bell followed. A crowd did not gather as rapidly as usual. After the blaze informed them of its whereabouts, the firemen had any number of volunteers to their aid. The department experienced great difficulty. Two plugs nearest the church were frozen, and it was necessary to go to College street for water. In spite of the difficulties, they wasted no time forcing one stream against the burning building. A private hydrant at the Vodrey pottery was also used, and four streams were eventually doing what they could to quench the flames.

The fire started in the basement, and bursting through the floor transformed the auditorium into a seething furnace, and bounding to the ceiling caught the tower. It was immediately enveloped in a sheet of flame which glared and burned, tossed hither and thither by the fierce wind. The windows burst one after another, and the wire carrying electricity to the building hung across Robinson street, sparks flying from the broken end, a constant warning for the crowd to keep back. A shower of sparks went up when a crash announced the falling of the tower and roof, and the attention of the firemen was turned to adjacent buildings. The residence of Mr. Specht, built so close to the church that scarce a foot separated them, was in great danger. A stream of water played constantly on the side nearest the church, and the rooms were flooded from a small hose inside. It grew hot and smoked and seemed about to burst into flame several times, but the water did its work well, and never during the fire was it burning.

The cold greatly handicapped the firemen, but they worked well. Spray fell over them and froze to their garments, but they remained at their posts, and after half an hour's hard work had succeeded in confining the fire to the church. Sparks flew into the streets and over the hill, and for a time there was great danger. The wind blew the flames almost against other buildings, but after a time it changed, and well it did. Had it continued as it was when the firemen arrived, nothing would have saved the Specht residence.

When the electric wire fell it was seen by the crowd, and people were warned to cross it carefully. One man did not heed the cry, and stepping on it was rolled into the street. He was not hurt, but gathered himself together with that expression so often seen when a real cause is unknown.

When the flames climbed to the tower the burning building presented a beautiful sight. Situated as it was on the hill, it could be seen in all parts of the city. Enough of the roof was burned away to allow the fire to burst through in a great, broad sheet, while sparks were sent almost as high as the reflection.

The church was heated from a furnace in the basement, coal being used as fuel and it is here the fire started. No specific cause is assigned as the heating apparatus was believed to be perfectly safe. At no time was it looked upon as a source of danger, and members say they never thought of the church being destroyed by fire. It is believed the main pipe, which was only a foot from the ceiling of the basement, became overheated.

The building was insured for $2,500 and the furniture for $700. This will almost cover the loss. The congregation was organized in 1887, and the church built the next year, being dedicated in December by Elder Wilcox. Three years ago $750 was spent for furniture, and last summer repairs worth $300 were made. The basement was remodeled at a cost of $750, and the debt was lifted a year ago. The congregation is made up of 300 persons, and in addition to the church own the next lot, although a debt of $1,100 rests on it. The ground on which the church stood was given them by the late Josiah Thompson, with the understanding that it was always to be used for church purposes, unless the heirs should consent to its use for some other purpose.

The congregation have for several years been discussing the advisability of building a church better suited to their wants, but the hard times prevented the consummation of the plan. Some favor a more central location, and it is probable that will be the course adopted, but to this there is some opposition. A meeting of the official board will be held next Monday when the matter will be discussed.

Professor Reed announces today that Sunday's services will be held in the Association auditorium. Arrangements will be made for a meeting place until a new church can be erected.

The pastor and officers of the First Presbyterian church this morning tendered Reverend Reed and his congregation the use of their church until the new church is built.

A CHRISTIAN LADY

Speaks Warm Words Respecting the News Review.

"EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—I am an humble woman, not possessing any great share of worldly wealth, and with but a common school education. You will therefore kindly correct any mistakes I may make in this article and put it before the public in readable shape. I was at one time very much prejudiced against the manager of your paper. I was wrong to allow prejudice or rumor to control me. I have since made his acquaintance and the acquaintance of his wife, and I know, as truly as one can know the life of another, that they are working earnestly in the cause of humanity and right, and especially against the alcohol curse, and I know that this will array against them all the forces of sin and evil in East Liverpool, and that they should therefore receive practical sympathy from every Christian man, woman and child in the city, no matter what church you represent. I commend you warmly, Mr. Editor, for your support of the men redeemed from the curse of alcohol. I commend you for your course respecting Evangelist Tracy. No Christian man or woman should condemn a redeemed human being, unless with absolute proof back of that condemnation; aye, I'll go further; no Christian man or woman will condemn any poor sinner and attempt to push him back into sin and sinful ways, but will, in memory of the blessed Christ, forgive him even to seventy times seven. When he falls, pick him up and place his feet in the straight and narrow path which leads to eternal life. God bless your paper as it backs up and stands by those who are attempting to live right and to enter into the great truth. I am a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, a church which I very much love on account of the grand work it has performed, by the blessing of the Savior. But, even better than this, I am a member of the great church of God, embracing all churches which have for their main object the elevation of humanity and the salvation of immortal souls, through Him who has loved us and has given His life for us. In conclusion, Mr. Editor, never grow weary in well doing. You will surely win, in name of truth and humanity. METHODIST.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, JAN. 29

The Salem Herald opposed to John
R. McClain as the Democratic candidate for senator! Perish the thought.

MUCH can be said for and against the remodeling of the state house, but if it was left to a vote of Columbiana county
there is no doubt as to the result. We are too far away from Columbus.

NEVADA passes a bill legalizing prize fighting while other legislatures are attempting to stop the playing of football.
Verily, there is a vast difference of opinion in this great land of ours.

It's a wonder the column rules of the Canton News-Democrat didn't twist
with agony when the cut of that magnificent hospital J. Pierpont Morgan is going to give New York, was printed.

THAT endorsement of Mr. Hanna by the county committee interprets Colum-biana sentiment very well. It also proves that Treasurer Cameron, who is charged with writing it, can never be accused of neglecting detail.

It is the bounden duty of every Democratic paper to throw up its hands in horror at every fresh announcement dealing with inauguration details. The simplicity marking the seating of Grover Cleveland was so marked, you know. Nit.

In the face of the great demand for tariff legislation it is not at all likely that the men who take part in the special session of congress will relish delay of any kind. They know, as do
all other sensible people, that a continuance of Wilson's bill means a continuance of poverty.

GIVE EVERY MAN A SHOW.

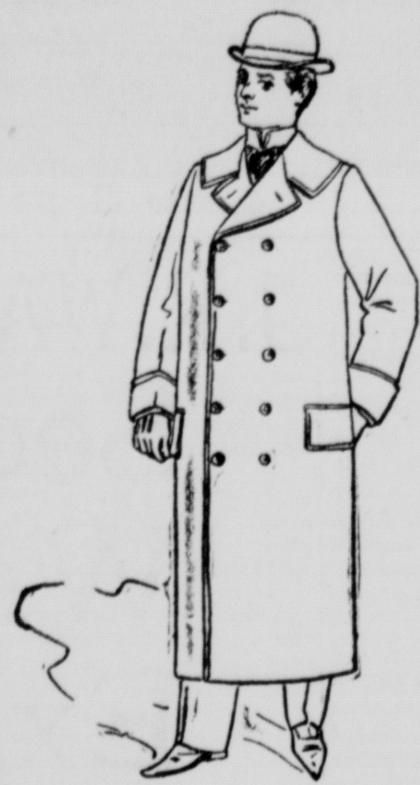

While it is generally conceded that
the county committee would have pleased the great majority of Republicans had it decided to conduct the primaries under the Australian system, nothing can now be done, and candidates and voters must make the best of
an annoying situation by accepting it.
There remains, however, one phase of the matter which should be given the attention of every voter who believes
every man is entitled to the same consideration at the polls. Too often have the Republican primaries been marked
by scenes which should never have occurred. There have been charges and counter charges of a serious nature, and
sections of the county have been arrayed against other sections in a manner calculated to embitter and disgust
the better element in the party. There have been times when many good Republicans almost doubted their Republicanism as they saw the illy concealed plans and plots of unscrupulous politicians, some of them only in the party
because it happens to be the leading political organization of the county. The ballot should be as pure at the primary as at the regular election. Every candidate has the same right held by every other. He places his case in the hands of his fellow citizens, trusting to their honor, and it is but justice that he be
not handicapped by the official friends
of some more favored aspirant for the position. It was to abolish any suspection of dishonesty that the News Review urged the adoption of the Australian ballot, but since the committee has seen fit to order the rules of last year
we still believe there is ample room for reform in some voting precincts. For the sake of the party, and for the sake of
every candidate expecting a square deal,
it is but right that the vote should be
honestly cast and as honestly counted.
Let Republicans and Republicans alone
cast the ballots at the Republican primaries.

a turn in affairs of our country, which

Do You Want Shoes?

If you do, then it will pay you to read the mammoth ad. of Frank, Shumaker & Co., in today's issue. These shoe dealers keep the best goods manufactured, and sell at very reasonable figures.

They will not permit the slightest misrepresentation, and the public has become aware of the fact. Read ad., visit the fine store room, receive a cordial welcome and secure very desirable bargains.

WANT TANYARD SEWERED.

Residents Would Pay the Assessment
Without a Murmur.

People who reside along Tanyard run are of the opinion that the run should be sewerd from one end to the other, and it is probable there would be little trouble in getting them to pay the assessment for such an improvement.
Now that work has been started sewer-ing the lower part of the run, they think it should be continued. The run is a natural sewer for the district, and in the summer time the stench which arises from it is almost unbearable.

STRANGE, ISN'T IT,

we're not overstocked? We do not need money, and there's lots of other ways in which we differ from the calamity criers. Fact is, we've taken stock, and we are delighted with the results. Dividing profits with the buyers has increased our business. Increased business has given us advantages in buying, of which we promise you some elegant examples for the spring, 1897. Stock taking has revealed many odds and ends; many small lots, commonly called remnants. We are going to dispose of them. Not with a profit, nor at cost, but at a mere fraction of the former prices. Fair notice.

WEERLANGER
COR FIFTH & WASHINGTON STS.
EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

This war of extermination begins today and ends when every odd suit, every small lot, every remaining overcoat is sold; when balance of fall stock of hats, the little left in underwear, holiday ties and handkerchiefs have disappeared. In fact, when the shelves and cases are ready for spring goods, and not before. Here are plain facts, plainly stated. Truth needs no embellishment. As every hour brings bargains, the usual hour sales will for a time be omitted. Various lots of hosiery, of gloves, of pants, etc., have been bunched as one.
Early comers get first choice, and choice will be worth a premium. Our store may not look as prim as usual, for things have been turned topsy-turvy. But it's bargains, not beauty, we announce for this sale this week. Don't delay.

WELLSVILLE.

EAGERLY AWAITED

Is the Outcome of the Case Against Those Election Officers.

Election officers Vandye and Grafton, who served at the polls in the Fourth ward on last presidential election day, were taken to Lisbon yesterday afternoon to answer to the charge of depriving D. Mannist of his suffrage as a citizen of the United States. It will be remembered the grand jury reported a true bill against them. Everyone is eager to learn of the outcome of the trial and the columns of the NEWS REVIEW will be scanned carefully for every item in regard to the matter. Grafton and Vandye are prominent citizens of the West End.

THE EVANGELISTS.

They Will Be Here Next Week to Start the Meetings.

Will S. Dumvill, the boy evangelist, of Paxatany, Pa., well known throughout the state, and who is now the companion of the great Yorkshire evangelist and noted divine of the British Methodist church, Rev. Isaac Naylor, will open a series of revival meetings at the Evangelical church Sunday evening. Reverend Naylor will arrive in the city on Thursday, and with the assistance of the boy preacher, will continue the services indefinitely. Rev.
Naylor bears an international reputation as a divine, and much interest will be taken.

UNEASY ARE SALOONISTS.

They Wonder When They Will Be Called to Lisbon.

Officer Thorn last night arrested a young man named Polen at his home near town, and locked him up preparatory to taking him to Lisbon. It is understood he is interested in a liquor case.

A number of saloonists are thinking every moment the next will bring them a summons to appear before Judge Smith in Lisbon. It is generally believed Wellsville will have her full share of balance in the scales of justice.

THE CURFEW ORDINANCE.

All Wellsville Seems to Favor the Movement.

Wellsville cannot be said to be behind her sister city. A petition has been circulating for some time asking council to pass a curfew ordinance which is in some extent more severe than curfew laws enacted by other towns. It makes provision that the curfew shall ring at 8 o'clock in the evening during December, January and February, and at 9 o'clock the remainder of the year. Such an ordinance would meet with general support. It is needed.

MARTIN'S FRIENDS ARE GLAD.

They Heard of the Verdict With Much Satisfaction.

Early this morning a private telephone message was received in Wells-ville by a friend of John Martin, ex-county treasurer, that Mr. Martin had won his suit in court, and his friends are greatly elated over the good news.
Mr. Martin has hosts of friends in the city who await his return to congratulate him.

The News of Wellsville.

The Cleveland and Pittsburgh company are having considerable trouble with their water works all along their line on account of the severe cold weather.
A great many tanks have frozen and become almost useless.

A report comes from New Amsterdam, Jefferson county, to the effect that a protracted meeting between the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, has been the means of converting almost all the hardened sinners in that community.
The meetings have been attended by great enthusiasm.

Mr. Sam Berry is very dangerously sick—cause unknown.

Constable Thorne served warrants on quite a number of people here yesterday, and took them to Lisbon today.

Mayor Jones has taken a relapse, and is again confined to his home.

Pat Fitzpatrick is in Lisbon today on business.

The Pollock-Crea case in justice's court was decided by arbitration.

J. J. Dowling is able to attend to business again after a sickness.

Harry Sheetz is on the grip list.

Joe Davis is confined to his home with diphtheria.

Ice from 10 to 12 inches in thickness is being removed from the river and stored away.

A merry party of young people drove to Salineville last evening.

Miss Bessie Coleman, who resides with her parents on West Main street, will entertain her friends Saturday evening.

Over 30 invitations are out, and the young folks expect to spend a joyful evening.

Mrs. Nesley Wells, of Nicholson's addition, is very sick.

Miss Bessie McMannis is able to be about again.

THE LAW IS BROKEN.

Breaks.

"The slot machines are becoming more numerous in the city every day, while it is said the policy game is again in every evening, and last night the streets had the appearance of a race track," remarked a prominent citizen to a reporter this morning, "and I would like to know why this is permitted without an effort to stop it. Why do we pay policemen, anyway?"

UNION LABEL

THE SALEM HERALD opposed to John

R. McClain as the Democratic candidate for senator! Perish the thought.

MUCH can be said for and against the

remodeling of the state house, but if it

was left to a vote of Columbiana county

there is no doubt as to the result. We

are too far away from Columbus.

NEVADA passes a bill legalizing prize

fighting while other legislatures are attempting to stop the playing of football.

Verily, there is a vast difference of

opinion in this great land of ours.

It's a wonder the column rules of the

with agony when the cut of that

magnificent hospital J. Pierpont Morgan

is going to give New York, was printed.

THAT endorsement of Mr. Hanna by

the county committee interprets Colum-biana sentiment very well. It also

proves that Treasurer Cameron, who is

charged with writing it, can never be

accused of neglecting detail.

It is the bounden duty of every Democratic paper to throw up its hands in

horror at every fresh announcement dealing with iniquitous details. The simplicity marking the seating of

Grover Cleveland was so marked, you know. Nit.

In the face of the great demand for

tariff legislation it is not at all likely

that the men who take part in the

special session of congress will relish

delay of any kind. They know, as do

all other sensible people, that a continuance of Wilson's bill means a continuance of poverty.

GIVE EVERY MAN A SHOW.

While it is generally conceded that

the county committee would have

pleased the great majority of Republicans had it decided to conduct the primaries under the Australian system,

nothing can now be done, and candidates and voters must make the best of

an annoying situation by accepting it.

There remains, however, one phase of

attention of every voter who believes

every man is entitled to the same consideration at the polls. Too often have

the Republican primaries been marked

by scenes which should never have occurred. There have been charges and

counter charges of a serious nature, and

sections of the county have been ar-

rayed against other sections in a manner calculated to embitter and disgust

the better element in the party. There

have been times when many good Republicans almost doubted their Republicanism as they saw the ill concealed

plans and plots of unscrupulous politicians, some of them only in the party

because it happens to be the leading

political organization of the county. The ballot should be as pure as the primary

at the regular election. Every candidate has the same right held by every

other. He places his case in the hands

of his fellow citizens, trusting to their

honor, and it is but justice that he be

not handicapped by the official friends

of some more favored aspirant for the position. It was to abolish any suspicion of dishonesty that the News Review urged the adoption of the Austr-lian ballot, but since the committee has

seen fit to order the rules of last year

we still believe there is ample room for reform in some voting precincts. For the sake of the party, and for the sake of

every candidate expecting a square deal,

it is but right that the vote should be

honestly cast and as honestly counted.

Let Republicans and Republicans alone

cast the ballots at the Republican primaries.

Linen Dusters and Overcoats at Reduced Prices.

Zero weather doesn't often come in this country, and when it does, it's apt to catch many people unprepared. The mild weather which we have had up to this spell, practically all this winter, has let lots of men and boys go without Overcoats and Winter Suits, and as a consequence, there is a great deal of Clothing on our counters. So this ZERO snap catches us in great shape to offer inducements. We propose to cut down these stocks so low that when stock taking is begun next week our counters will be virtually empty.

MEN'S OVERCOATS.

Yes, fine Kersey Overcoats that are trimmed and made well; that sold at $10.00, now

at $6.37.

$15 MEN'S OVERCOATS.

Some of the best makes in the land. Can't be bought from the wholesale manufacturers. Our reason for selling them is because this season has been a slow demand for the finer quality of goods. So our better Overcoats have been slow sellers. Think of such Overcoats as from H. S. & M. Sold everywhere at $15. Smash price, freeze on to these

at $9.88.

Want to be careful these days. Poor underclothing and pneumonia are old comrades, you know, and go hand in hand. We'll protect you from the wintry blasts by offering you: Men's Fleece Woolen Underwear, sold everywhere at $1.00; our price 77c; Men's White Woolen Underwear, 75c quality, at 44c; Men's 50c Underwear at 38c; Men's Woolen Top Shirts, sold at $1.25, now 88c; Men's Woolen Top Shirts, $1.00, marked at 77c. MEN'S OVERCOATS.

All wool Beaver, sold at $8.00; yes, great values at this price; we have cut the price way down

at $4.67.

$20 FINEST OVERCOATS.

Yes, these Overcoats are money makers to the consumer. Finest goods in the market. Now

at $13.62.

MEN'S SUITS,

$5.12, $5.62, $6.12, $6.87, $7.00, $8.00 and $10, are winners. Swell Checks, Plaids, Fancy Mixed Goods, Up to date? Yes. Ahead of the times. Same goods sold for the coming spring in light weight goods. You can buy in heavy and medium weight goods at smashing prices.

JOSEPH BROS.

NOT TOO SOON

Can Come Improvement in the Crockery Trade.

While it is true that many improvements have been made in the goods needed, it must not be forgotten that, so far as the majority of the potters are concerned, improvement and additional investment has been impossible. With a turn in affairs of our country, which can come none too soon, will come a steadier employment and fair wages for labor, and such returns to potters as will justify investments looking to further improvement. There has been poverty and hard times, headache and mental worry and uncertainty of the future enough to satisfy the most rabid theorists who, four years ago, wanted change. Let us have leisure, and if not great wealth, at least well being and comfort, an extra hundred dollar bill for books, music, art, travel, rest and recreation so that new thoughts, new ideas, new inspirations and finer designs shall come, as a result of changed and improved environment, to all who are connected with American art and industry.—China, Glass and Lamps.

CLOTHING AND BEDDING

Township Trustees Call For Donations.

THEY MUST KEEP THE POOR

All Person Having Warm and Comfortable Articles Which Can Be Spared Are Earnestly Requested to Send Them to the Poor Authorities For Distribution.

If you are charitable, and have any old article of clothing or bedding that will aid in keeping the cold from some poor being too poor to buy the necessities of life, send it at once to the township trustees or notify them and they will call.

There is much destitution in the city, and many persons are in actual want. The poor authorities are supplying them day after day with food, but the extreme cold has developed that clothing is also in great demand. Scenes are witnessed every day in that little office on Fifth street which only the hardest heart can endure without a pang of sympathy. The trustees believe there are more than enough old clothes cast away hanging in comfortable homes to alleviate a great part of their suffering, and they earnestly ask that these garments be sent them. Old bedding is also in demand. Of blankets and comforts there is a scarcity, and they believe this condition can be remedied by charitable people when the matter is brought to their attention.

A little girl appeared at the office this morning. She was blue with cold, and as she drew her scanty dress about her thin and shivering form, Trustee Albright noticed that her shoes were worn through and she had no stockings. She told a story of suffering and privation that made the kind hearted official brush his eyes suspiciously. There were no unnecessary questions this time, but taking her to a shoe store he soon made her as comfortable and happy as if she were a queen.

The report of the trustees for the past month shows a decided increase over the preceding month, they having expended $19.29 of township and $64.26 of county funds. A greater part of this amount has been spent within the last five days, and the coal bills alone amount to almost $100. This is not as bad as it was last year at the same time, as the trustees then expended $158.02 township and $261.39 of the county's funds.

D. M. OGILVIE & CO.

The New Firm Makes Its Bow to the Public.

The firm of Crosser-Ogilvie company has ceased to exist. D. M. Ogilvie & Co. will do business in the old stand. The News Review wishes the new firm an abundant share of prosperity and success, believing that they will deserve it in every particular. Ed M. Crosser, retiring, has the good wishes of a host of friends, and this paper has abundant cause to hearten him to the sentiment, Ed having been a true friend to the proprietors ever since their coming to East Liverpool, while D. M. Ogilvie, of the new firm, has backed him up in a way which has met with our unqualified approval. Prosperity and happiness are twins which Palmer and Morris hope may ever surround and dwell with Edward and Daniel. Selah.

STOPPED THE BLOOD.

Peculiar Gift of Miss Williams, of This Place.

Robert MacMillan was bitten by a pet gray squirrel as he fondled it yesterday afternoon. The animal's teeth went into his finger to the bone. The wound bled freely, and no little trouble was encountered before the flow was stopped. D. M. OGILVIE & CO.

Tomorrow (Saturday) is our first day, and we are going to start in by selling goods cheap. It will be the last day of the sale—everything at cost. Our half-price sale on Cloaks will continue. You can buy anything of this season's purchases at just half what it is marked. All last season's garments at $2. Some of these sold at $15 and $20. Just as good to keep you warm as this season's goods, and won't cost you but $2.

Remnants Tomorrow.

We have piled them all out on tables, and tomorrow we are going to sell them at one-fourth off of the prices they are marked. This means that you can buy them at just about one-half of what they are worth. We want all our old friends to understand that we intend keeping up the push and vim of the old concern, and at all times will do our best to furnish our patrons with good, reliable merchandise at the very lowest prices.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

M. B. Adam and family will move next Monday to Leetonia.

The Peterson brothers are able to be at work again after three weeks' illness.

The members of the Phoenix club will hold an important business meeting this evening.

The decorating kilns recently repaired at the Knowles plant are giving great satisfaction.

The holder of ticket number 12 is entitled to the phonograph given by the Jiggerman's local.

Alexander Graff, a clay merchant from Kittanning, is in the city calling on the various potteries.

The frigid weather has had a marked effect on passenger traffic, and the trains carry very few travelers.

C. H. Potters will erect an eight roomed residence on Avondale street as soon as the weather opens.

Stewart Erskine, who has been in business here for two months, left last evening to locate in Alliance.

John O. Bowen, of Pittsburg, representing the Bradstreet commercial agency, is in the city on business.

District Deputy Duncan installed the officers of the Junior Mechanics last evening. The meeting was interesting.

An official and his family passed over the line in a special car attached to the westbound passenger train, yesterday afternoon.

East End residents are suffering because of a lack of gas. Many becoming disgusted at the small supply, have taken it out, and now use coal.

The cold has caused some annoyance in the public schools, and it has been necessary to dismiss several rooms because of the lack of heat.

A merry sleighing party from the city went to the home of Samuel Fowler, near Cannon's Mill, last evening, and spent several enjoyable hours.

City Treasurer Herbert will at the spring election be a candidate for the office of township treasurer. He will in all probability have no opposition.

A poverty social will be given in the First U. P. church this evening by the Young People's society. A number of amusing features will be introduced.

William Erlanger, Jr., and bride returned this morning from their wedding trip, and are now at home to their friends at their pleasant residence on Third street.

The employees of the Union pottery resumed work this morning, after being idle since Saturday. The plant was closed on account of damage caused by the cold.

T. H. Rogers, the Dayton inventor who has been in the city arranging for the manufacture of a patent mug, went to Canton yesterday. He will return in a few days.

The ice on the river at the foot of Market street is eight inches thick, and commencing Monday morning, workmen will begin cutting it and storing the crop for summer use.

L. J. Vair, the expert checker player, who has been the guest of Albert Obney, returned to his home in Ravenna last evening. Mr. Vair was pleased with the city and may locate here.

A well known sportsman of the city is very anxious that the weather will moderate, as he fears the extreme cold will kill the few quail and pheasants left in this section of the country.

Leonard Beck, who played with the York baseball team last year in the Pennsylvania state league, is in the city. He is a pitcher, and is endeavoring to secure a position with the Stars.

Commissioner Finley and his force cut the ice at Broadway and Robinson street yesterday afternoon. Cinders were put on Union street, that part of the city being too slippery to allow teamsters to climb the hill.

The young people who went skating yesterday afternoon at the head of the island returned in a very short time, and there was scarcely a member in the party who was not suffering from frozen face, ears or fingers.

James Martin, pharmacist, formerly engaged in East Liverpool, now in the drug business at Fairmount, W. Va., has been visiting friends in the city for the past few days and returned to his place of business this evening.

Crockery buyers are arriving and departing with more regularity than usual. Yesterday afternoon C. E. Wheelock, of Peoria, S. H. Wheelock, of South Bend, and A. W. Wheelock, of Rockford, well known dealers came here and are making the rounds of the potteries and placing orders.

The authorities have received a circular from the Chicago police department, containing a description of five fugitives from justice. They are wanted for stealing bonds. The party escaped after being indicted for the crime. A liberal reward is offered for the arrest of any or all of the lawbreakers.

Yesterday two well known young people went to Beaver with the intention of getting married. When they applied for a license they were refused, as the girl was only 19 years old. The young man left and said he would return home and get the consent of her parents, but the marriage has not yet taken place.

Township Trustees Call For Donations.

THEY MUST KEEP THE POOR

All Person Having Warm and Comfortable Articles Which Can Be Spared Are Earnestly Requested to Send Them to the Poor Authorities For Distribution.

If you are charitable, and have any old article of clothing or bedding that will aid in keeping the cold from some poor being too poor to buy the necessities of life, send it at once to the township trustees or notify them and they will call.

There is much destitution in the city, and many persons are in actual want. The poor authorities are supplying them day after day with food, but the extreme cold has developed that clothing is also in great demand. Scenes are witnessed every day in that little office on Fifth street which only the hardest heart can endure without a pang of sympathy. The trustees believe there are more than enough old clothes cast away hanging in comfortable homes to alleviate a great part of their suffering, and they earnestly ask that these garments be sent them. Old bedding is also in demand. Of blankets and comforts there is a scarcity, and they believe this condition can be remedied by charitable people when the matter is brought to their attention.

A little girl appeared at the office this morning. She was blue with cold, and, as she drew her scanty dress about her thin and shivering form, Trustee Albright noticed that her shoes were worn through and she had no stockings. She told a story of suffering and privation that made the kind hearted official brush his eyes suspiciously. There were no unnecessary questions this time, but taking her to a shoe store he soon made her as comfortable and happy as if she were a queen.

The report of the trustees for the past month shows a decided increase over the preceding month, they having expended $110.29 of township and $64.26 of county funds. A greater part of this amount has been spent within the last five days, and the coal bills alone amount to almost $100. This is not as bad as it was last year at the same time, as the trustees then expended $158.02 township and $261.39 of the county's funds.

The New Firm Makes Its Bow to the Public.

The firm of Crosser-Ogilvie company has ceased to exist. D. M. Ogilvie & Co. will do business in the old stand. The News Review wishes the new firm an abundant share of prosperity and success, believing that they will deserve it in every particular. Ed M. Crosser, retiring, has the good wishes of a host of friends, and this paper has abundant cause to heartily echo the sentiment, Ed having been a true friend to the proprietors ever since their coming to East Liverpool, while D. M. Ogilvie, of the new firm, has backed him up in a way which has met with our unqualified approval. Prosperity and happiness are twins which Palmer and Morris hope may ever surround and dwell with Edward and Daniel. Selah.

STOPPED THE BLOOD.

Peculiar Gift of Miss Williams, of This Place.

Robert MacMillan was bitten by a pet gray squirrel as he fondled it yesterday afternoon. The animal's teeth went into his finger to the bone. The wound bled freely, and no little trouble was encountered before the flow was stopped. A Miss Williams, who claims to be endowed with peculiar healing powers was called and endeavored to bring about a cure. The bleeding stopped. She is a member of the family who drove to this city from St. Louis several weeks ago.

you have never appreciated what a convenience and comfort a hot water bottle is. Our grandparents used bricks, soapstone and sad irons. Some people use them yet. A hot water bottle is better in every way. More convenient and retains the heat longer. Four sizes—1, 2, 3 and 4 quarts. Just as many prices—80c, 90c, $1.00 and $1.15.

Have you tried our

MARTIN WON THE CASE

Jesse Kepner Must Pay With Interest.

OVER TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS

The Jury Were Out All Night Henry Nixon, of Salineville, Believing the Defendant Should Get the Verdict—He Agreed at 7 O'clock This Morning.

Lisbon, Jan. 29.—[Special.]—John R. Martin was given a verdict this morning for $10,924.76, the amount of his claim against Jesse Kepner, with interest from Sept. 2, 1896 to Jan. 18, 1897. The arguments yesterday afternoon covered every phase of the case, and attracted much attention. Judge Taylor's charge was not long, and the case went to the jury at 4 o'clock. The first ballot was 10-2 in favor of the plaintiff, and the second 11-1. The juror who stood out for Kepner was Henry Nixon, of Salineville, and for hours he could not believe as did the others. At length he decided that Martin had won, and at 7 o'clock this morning a verdict was rendered. A motion for a new trial was at once filed. It will be argued in Canton next Monday morning, and if it is overruled the case will go to the circuit court for another hearing.

The First National bank of Wellsville secured a lot in Aten's addition which was sold by Sheriff Gill. The sale was made in the case of E. S. Bright against Maggie Clyde. The property brought $1,220.

In the case of William K. Gillespie against W. Edwards, S. J. Firestone got judgment for $750.00.

Isaac Faloon, in his suit against Geo. Gluth, has effected a settlement.

Mrs. R. K. Mackall, the guardian of A. R. Mackall, has been appointed guardian of their children, and authorized to sell property in East Liverpool.

In the case of Frank E. Grosshans against Lizzie A. Webber, the proceeds of the sale were distributed.

The action brought by W. L. Smith against Catherine Costellow and Smith Fowler has been dismissed.

C. W. Hummer and wife have adjusted the alimony phase of the divorce action filed a few days ago by Mrs. Hummer, by having Sheriff Gill appointed receiver for the household furniture owned by them. The sheriff will sell it without appraisement, and Mrs. Hummer will take $100 as her share.

Circuit court convenes next Tuesday, and the bar list has been completed. The cases of J. C. Deidrick against Ohio, M. A. Lodge versus Goddard, Hill & Co., Robert Hailes versus East Liverpool will be heard.

COMPANY MAY SUFFER.

The Authorities Want Street Cars Well Heated.

A movement is on foot to compel the street railway company to heat their cars, so that passengers can ride with some degree of comfort. Doctor Marshall recently asked Solicitor Grosshans if something could not be done, and the gentleman decided to investigate. A prominent attorney said to the News Review:

"There is no doubt in my mind that the company can be made to properly heat the cars or forfeit their franchise. I wish the officers of that line had to ride on it these days."

REVEREND REED'S LECTURE.

He Warned His Hearers Up Before the Fire Demon Came.

Despite the awfully chilly blasts of last night, a nice audience assembled at the Christian church, attracted by the announcement that the pastor would give his reasons for terming the United States the "Promised Land." He gave his reasons, in the most pleasing manner, and had been in an open hall, outside the church, would have been applauded to the echo. Space forbids an extended report.

But Fare Boxes Return No Nickles These Cold Days.

Yesterday a well known drug clerk boarded a street car, and going to the fare box dropped in 10 cents and stood waiting for his change, but was informed by a passenger that the box did not give change. He appealed to the motorman, but without success, and the young man believes now that conductors should be placed on cars.
